'Real Inspector Hound, The' is presented by special arrangement with SAMUEL FRENCH, LTD

The REAL
Inspector
Hound

The Real Inspector Hound is a one-act comedy farce by Tom Stoppard.

The plot follows two theatre critics - Moon and Birdboot - who are watching a ludicrous setup of a country house murder mystery.

By chance, they become involved in the action on stage, causing a series of events that parallel the play they are watching.

Packed with crazy characters, twists and turns, laugh-out-loud belly-aching moments, suspense, murder and poignant critical acclamations, this is a fun-filled comedy for all!

Come and discover - who is the real inspector?

About Merrow Dramatic Society

With roots going back as far as the 1920s, Merrow Dramatic Society has been producing high quality productions for many years. Based at the heart of Merrow near Guildford, Surrey, UK, we pride ourselves on being part of the local community. Our productions vary from straight plays to poetry evenings, play readings, musical theatre, plus a host of social occasions including an annual barbecue and rounders match and a skittles evening.

Productions are performed at the professionally-equipped Electric Theatre at the heart of Guildford town centre. The annual pantomime, a regular feature of Merrow life since the 1950s, is performed at Merrow Village Hall.

We pride ourselves on a varied program including straight plays, comedies, classics and thrillers. Keen to make use of local talent, MDS is always happy to welcome new members of all ages, both on and off stage.
